

Welcome To Vancouver

By Randi H. Abramsky, Host Chair

Welcome to one of the world's most beautiful and livable cities! This is not just my assessment, but that of those "in the know." In just 2017 alone, Vancouver has been given the following accolades:

- U.S. News and World Report (June 2017) – Best Family Vacation Destination in Canada;
- Travel Press Agency's Choice Awards (June 2017) – Favourite Canadian City;
- TravelAge West Wave Awards (June 2017) – Destination with Highest Client Satisfaction;
- Trip Advisor 2017 Travelers' Choice Awards (March 2017)
- Top Destination in Canada;
- Forbes (January 2017) – Vancouver is a Top 2017 Travel Destination.

The NAA Annual Meeting runs from Wednesday, May 23 to Saturday, May 26, 2018 at the beautiful Fairmont Hotel, 900 West Georgia Street, in Vancouver, British Columbia. Come early to the annual meeting and join your colleagues for a round of golf on one of the lush courses on Wednesday afternoon, May 23, 2018. Email Chris Sullivan for more information (csullivan@arboffice.ca). For those who prefer tennis, courts have been reserved in Stanley Park for Wednesday and Thursday afternoon, May 23 and May 24. Email Chris Albertyn for more information (chrisalbertyn@icloud.com) voted "Best Upscale Restaurant" in Vancouver for four years straight.

On Friday night, we will enjoy an evening of "Magic and Music." Our very own past NAA President, Rich Bloch, will perform some of his magic for us, followed by a live jazz band performance.

Please also come to the Presidential Dinner at Hawksworth Restaurant on May 22. Operated by renowned Chef David Hawksworth, this restaurant serves contemporary cuisine and has been

There will be several top restaurants for the "dine-around," including the Grouse Grind (a 2.9 kilometer hike up the face of Grouse Mountain), led by Sylvia Skratek's husband Peter Sziklai, followed by dinner at Altitudes Bistro, which has a lovely view of Mount Baker to the southeast and Vancouver Island to the west. For those of you who would just like to go to dinner at Altitudes Bistro, there will be a group that can take the tram up the mountain with Sylvia.

There are so many wonderful places to visit and see while you and your guests are here. Some possibilities include:

Vancouver Foodie Tours – Granville Island Market Tour (recurring weekly Thursday – Sunday) – two hours of "a perfectly crafted culinary journey through the world-famous Granville Island Public Market" including exclusive tastings. This was the #1 rated tour on TripAdvisor. Also highly rated is the Gastronomic Gastown Tour (Wednesday through Sunday).

Vancouver Art Gallery

The Vancouver Art Gallery, which is right across the street from the Hotel (and has a wonderful restaurant).

Arts Club – Mamma Mia – at the Stanley Industrial Alliance Stage.

Rookie Night – Vancouver TheaterSports League – up and coming improvisers.

Talaysay Tours – 90-minute tours of Stanley Park, led by a First Nations' descendent.

Talaysay Tours – "Talking Trees"

Vancouver...

With its beautiful mountains and lovely waterside, vibrant cultural and food scene, Vancouver is truly a wonderful venue for our 2018 annual meeting. All it needs to make it perfect is you.

Bicycle Tours – Vancouver is a bike rider's dream, with specially designated lanes. Check out Cycle City Tours and Bike Rentals; Stanley Park Bike Tours; and Vancouver City Highlights Bike Tour. For those of you who could use some help, there is also Vancouver E-Bike Tours.

Vancouver Water Adventure – a fast paced water tour of Vancouver and vicinity.

Forbidden Vancouver Walking Tours

hours in length and cover around 2 km (about a mile) of walking.

There are, of course, lovely spas to relax in, including the one at the Fairmont Hotel.

Walking Tours – including Forbidden Vancouver Walking Tours and Walking Brewery Tours of Vancouver.

Labour History Walking Tours – the B.C. Labour Heritage Centre offers two guided walking tours, which are about two Vancouver is also a gateway to Whistler, the Canadian Rockies, Victoria, Vancouver Island, the Gulf Islands, and the Okanagan Wine Valley, so there are many reasons to come early and stay late. Consider the Rocky Mountaineer Train excursion from Vancouver to Jasper or Banff, with absolutely spectacular scenery. Vancouver is also the home port for Alaska cruises from May through October.

Rocky Mountaineer Train excursion

Matt Franckiewicz advises that he has signed up for a Roads Scholar tour of Vancouver, which begins on Sunday May 27. This is a small group tour for six days, led by professors and other experts, for a “mature” and discerning clientele – which describes many of us.

Attractions & Activities

Stanley Park: This 1000 acre park– perfect for strolling, biking and running. It is home to multiple beaches, tennis courts and playgrounds.

Vancouver Aquarium: Enjoy the otter and dolphin shows! Please see the Concierge for tickets to avoid the line ups. www.vanaqua.org

Horse Drawn Carriage: Travel back in time with a slow paced tour of Stanley Park in an old-fashioned tram, including a stop at the Totem Poles. Tours start at 9:40, departing every 30 mins. (Duration of 1 hour Feb-Nov). www.stanleypark.com

Granville Island: Enjoy the large farmer's market as well as numerous arts and craft stalls, galleries, cafes, restaurants, brewery and Kid's market. Open daily from 9am- 7pm. www.granvilleisland.com

Gastown: This quaint area is notable for its distinctive late-Victorian architecture; cobble stone pavement and antique street lanterns. It is a great place to shop for souvenirs, Inuit art or to discover the talents of emerging local clothing and furniture designers. A visit to see and hear the Westminster chimes of the Steam Clock on Water Street is a must! www.gastown.org

Dr. Sun Yat-Sen Classical Garden: Enjoy the Ming Dynasty Scholars's garden, the first of its kind built outside of China. 10am-4:30pm Oct 1-Apr 30 www.vancouverchinesegarden.com

The Vancouver Look Out: Take Vancouver Sightseeing to a whole new level with a bird's eye view of the city. Open daily 9am-9:30pm (Oct-May). www.vancouverlookout.com

Fly Over Canada: Soar from coast to coast on a breathtaking aerial journey through the latest in 4D virtual flight ride technology (complete with wind, scents, mist and sound!). Soar, dip and turn through the sky, feel the rush of the wind on your face, 25 minute experience. www.flyovercanada.com

Vancouver Art Gallery: The largest art gallery in western Canada is nestled into a splendid downtown heritage building. The Vancouver Art Gallery offers changing exhibitions of traditional and contemporary works in various media. Permanent displays include paintings by renowned BC artist Emily Carr. www.vanartgallery.bc.ca
Open daily from 10am-5pm (Tue. 10am-9pm)
